

Open Positions – December 2017

Assembler

This position consists of assembling the different parts of the truck body. This position requires manual skills, autonomy, resourcefulness and the ability to work in a team.

Concierge

We are looking for someone who will keep our plant and common areas clean at all times. If you are autonomous and organized, join our dynamic team now!

Foreman (Service Group)

Do you have experience in a leadership role? Join our foreman production team. For this position, knowledge in electricity, hydraulics/pneumatics and mechanics is a major asset.

Interior Finish Maneuver

Do you have experience in renovation or carpentry? The job consists in finishing the interior, mainly on boxes that have been insulated. If you are manual, autonomous and versatile, we invite you to send us your resume.

Inside Sales Representative

You have great aptitudes in Business Development? You are at ease working under pressure and you are a team player? This inside sales role is for you!

Receptionist

This position mainly consists of answering phone calls, greeting visitors and performing various administrative tasks. You are a smiling person and wish to be part of our family business, send us your resume now!

Welder

Whether you are an experienced welder or just starting your career, we want to know you! The job consists of welding different parts of the truck body. This position requires a welding-fitting professional diploma, manual skills, autonomy, resourcefulness as well as the ability to work with other team members.

Service Technician

We are searching for versatile people to fill the service technician position. If you are knowledgeable in sheet metal, carpentry, electrical, welding and van door repairs, we would like to have you in our team!